Please enter your comments below.: I like the fact that Jenn lets us, the students, comment freely when we feel the urge. i also like Jenn's rule of she does not deduct point from a student who does not participate all the time. On some days I just like to listent to the conversation of others and agree but do not feel in the mood to comment for whatever reason. Another thing I like about Jenn minitzer is she does not want to intimidate the students, like most professors. The atmosphere that Jenn provides for the students is a comfortable one and I appericate that. :)
